

IDAHO PREVENTIVE CARE RECOMMENDATIONS ADOLESCENT AGES 11-18

REFERENCES

The key references used to develop the guidelines include:

Early & Periodic Screening, Diagnostic & Treatment (EPSDT) section, pages 47-50 of the Idaho Medicaid Provider Handbook: General Provider and Participant Information (Published 7/1/2019).

Bright Futures/AAP 2019 Recommendation for Preventive Pediatric Health Care Periodicity Schedule.

Bright Futures: Guidelines for Health Supervision of Infants, Children, and Adolescents, 4th Edition

American Medical Association, Guidelines for Adolescent Preventive Services, 1995-7 (GAPS)

U.S. Preventive Services Task Force, Guide to Clinical Preventive Services, Third Edition, September 2002, and subsequent updates

American Academy of Family Physicians, Recommendations for Clinical Preventive Services

American Academy of Family Physicians, Summary of Policy Recommendations for Clinical Preventive Services, July 2017 (AAFP)

2017 AAP Clinical Practice Guideline for Screening and Management of High Blood Pressure in Children and Adolescents

CDC Advisory Committee on Immunization Practices (ACIP) Recommendations

National Vital Statistics Reports, Vol. 65 No. 4, June 30, 2016
(https://www.cdc.gov/nchs/data/nvsr/nvsr65/nvsr65_05.pdf)

American Academy of Pediatrics, Guidelines for Health Supervision III, 1997 (GHSIII)

Policy Reference Guide of the American Academy of Pediatrics, 1998 (AAP)