Intermountain Healthcare W&N Clinical Program
Indications for Delivery / Induction of Labor
(REVISED 1/19/2012)

- Abruptio Placenta
- Placenta Previa
- Chorioamnionitis
- PROM
- Post Term Pregnancy (>41 weeks)
- Maternal Medical Conditions
  - Preeclampsia: BP ≥140/90 with 1+ proteinuria or greater
  - Gestational hypertension: elevated BP of ≥140/90
  - Severe preeclampsia (including HELLP, AFLP, TTP)
  - Eclampsia
  - Chronic hypertension
  - Diabetes
  - Chronic renal disease (i.e., renal insufficiency with a creat >1.2
  - Antiphospholipid Syndrome
  - Systemic Lupus Erythematosus
  - History of arterial or venous thrombosis or embolism (with current use of anticoagulants)
  - Intrahepatic cholestasis
  - Alloimmunization
  - Other moderate-to-severe maternal medical conditions

- Fetal Problems
  - Fetal growth restriction <10th percentile
  - Oligohydramnios (AFI 5 cm OR DVP <2)
  - Polyhydramnios (AFI >30 cm)
  - Severe congenital anomalies
  - Abnormal antenatal testing
  - Previous stillbirth
  - Unstable lie
  - Fetal demise
  - Multiple Gestation
  - Other

- Logistics / Risk of Rapid Labor (sure of maturity): parameters for each facility to be established with input from the W&N Clinical Program and Obstetrics Development Team
- Psychosocial (sure of maturity)
- MFM Approval

Approved by OB Development team 1-19-2012